

My Magical Journey through the Arctic!

Slowly, I climbed onto the small wooden sled. Suddenly, the sled speedily took off, whizzing and sliding through the snow. My teeth were chattering and my skin was like ice. I was as cold as a freezer but I was having the best time of my life.

Behind me, I could hear howling huskies. I heard the sound 'awwwwwwwooh!' bellowing through the deep snowy forest, full of trees. Through the snow, I heard the sound of the sled whizzing as fast as it could go. Crushing through the thick snow, as strong as a yeti, I heard the sound of the dog's footsteps.

Like a wet light green leaf, the sky glistened above me. The Northern Lights were amazing, twinkling above. In the distance, I saw a little hut, where I would stop but not now. There was a large tree where I could crash but I turned around.

The huskies smelt fresh because of the cold air. The cold air smelt woody from the trees. The smell from the smoky fire in the cabins made my nose tickle.

Finally, we arrived. It was a very fun trip through the snow. I felt super happy and excited it was the best day ever. I want to visit again.
